

WHEELRIGHTS COMMITTEE MEETING Oct. 3rd 2022

Present – John Sayce, Chris Walsh, David Judd, David Naylor, Allyson Evans

Apologies – Dareyoush Rassi, Nick Guy, Caroline Carter

- Matters arising from the July meeting
  - a) Website redesign – Still awaiting feedback from Nick.
  - b) Obstacles and barriers- John reported on the removal of the A frames on the Craigeefnparc to Clydach path. Tracey Anstee is willing to have her photo taken next to several barriers in the enterprise zone. ACTION John and Allyson
  - c) Lighting on the promenade – Allyson to circulate her email from the City Council. John to take up again with Sketty Councillors.
  - d) Signage sub-group – yet to meet!
- Feedback from Councillors' meetings
  - a) Sketty - John and Dareyoush met with 4 councillors and spoke about the missing link between Gower College and Singleton Park, including the Eversley Rd shopping area. We agreed to support the need for a new footpath on Gower Rd and hoped it could be extended to include a shared use path along Sketty Park Rd to join Carnglas Rd . John to meet with Laura Wilkins, Gower College's sustainability officer.
  - b) Cwmbwlra - As neither Nick nor Dareyoush were present, the report back could not be given. ACTION Dareyoush and Nick.
- Active Travel stakeholder group – David reported on this meeting and the opening of the Pontarddulais link which has impressed him. We understand that the parapet of the motorway bridge is to be heightened to meet the Design Guidance. Chloe Lewis welcomed WR priority list for new routes. ACTION – To be discussed with members at the meeting on October 12th
- Future issues – David Judd to look at how to engage our members more fully.
- John Grimshaw meeting – David Judd outlined the programme saying they will be riding to see the Pontarddulais link before the evening meeting. Dareyoush is in charge of the meeting details and advertising. John said he would ask the secret café to take a poster.
- A.G.M. to be November 7th as a business meeting without a speaker.
